DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Claims 1-3 drawn to species 1 in the reply filed on 11/15/04 is acknowledged.

Claims 4-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 11/15/04.

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: BIPOLAR TRANSISTOR FOR VOLTAGE CONTROLLED OSCILLATOR USING A CAPACITANCE ADJUSTMENT LINE.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sugiyama et al. US 2004/0041201 A1.

Sugiyama et al. discloses in figures 1-17 (see Para. [0069]) a bipolar transistor (Fig.1) comprising: a semiconductor substrate (Fig 5); a transistor operation region (21,22, 24, 25) formed on the semiconductor substrate; an insulating film (26) formed so as to cover a substrate of the semiconductor substrate; a lead line (28) led to a surface of the insulating film there through from the transistor operation region (24, 25); a pad (gate pad 34 in figure 9B) for wire bonding connected to the lead line (71 in Fig 15); and a capacitance adjustment line (gate electrode layer 38) connected to the pad (34, see Para. [0109]).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the best prior art of record, Sugiyama et al, taken alone or in combination of other references, does not teach or fairly suggest a collector electrode is formed on a reverse surface of the collector substrate (Claims 2 and 3).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Haruki discloses a semiconductor device with a capacitance adjustment section.

Art Unit: 2817

Nemoto et al. discloses semiconductor device a capacitance adjustment

Wise et al. discloses semiconductor device a capacitance adjustment in a X-Y matrix of capacitor.

Abiko et al. discloses a diode with a capacitance adjustment.
